PRONOUNCED SMALL POX.

A letter to the HERALD, from a friend at Pataasko, O., under date of March 8th says:
"Seven young men from the neighborhood of Edinburg, came to Licking county, last Wednesday a week on quest of work. Two of them went to Union, about 15 miles North of Newark and five came there, fifteen miles West of Newark. They were three Baker brothers, Mr. W. W. Baker, Mr. Henry Carpenter, who had lived about two miles south of Edinburg. All obtained work readily. Mr.
Carpenter was taken sick and the Doctor has quarantined the house of his employer, prohibiting it a case of small pox. He is at the home of his employer, Mr. Alice Statton, Edinburg, two and one-half miles south of Pataasko. I saw Mr. Carpenter one day on the road while he was at work. I do not know how severe a case he has."

There have been, we are informed, several cases in the neighborhood of Edinburg, of a contagious, cutaneous disease, but physicians who have examined it, say that it is not small pox.

Tragedy in Shenandoah County.

We copy the following from an exchange. We are pretty well acquainted with the geography of Shenandoah, but we do not know any such places as Greenbackville or Labon. If such a boy was arrested in Shenandoah, we have not heard of it. There is either a mistake in locating the accident, or some correspondent has been imposing on the newspapers. There were not greenbackers enough in Shenandoah to have a Greenbackville.

Charles Jarvis, a thirteen-year-old boy of vicious character, who lives at Labon, near Greenbackville, coming home yesterday from gunning, found his sister and another girl in the yard.
Without provocation he called out to them, "I am going to shoot," and deliberately fired his double-barrel gun at them. His sister was unharmed, though the shot passed through her clothing.
The heavy charge struck the other girl, breaking both of her legs. She had to be carried in a rocking chair to her home, a mile away, and Dr. G. B.
Lane amputated both limbs. She died almost immediately after the operation.
The boy was arrested—Special to Philadelphia "Record."

Death of Mrs. Rebecca Coffman.

Mrs. Rebecca Coffman, wife of Mr.
C. G. Coffman, of the neighborhood of Pataasko, died on the 2d inst., aged 62 years. Mrs. Coffman was a native of Warren county. She moved to this county in 1869, and lived near Strasburg, till five or six years ago. At the time of her death, she was living with her son, Mr. Geo. W. Coffman.
She left five children, three sons and two daughters. She had been a member of the Lutheran church since childhood and in death relied upon the merits of a Savior whom she had found precious during life. She was buried at Fairview, Rev. J. E. Shenk conducted the funeral services.

A UNIQUE ENTERTAINMENT.

The entertainment given at Irwin's Hall, last Friday night, under the auspices of the Shenandoah Fire Company, by Miss Eugenia Tucker, the famed impersonator, assisted by Miss Josie P.
Kinsinger as harp soloist, was one of the most enjoyable which the citizens of Woodstock have had the pleasure of attending in many years.

The General's last victory" preceded by the sweet strains of "My Old Kentucky home," was a Southern scene, adorned by Southern scenes, so natural and so pathetic, that many in the audience imagined that they were real instead of descriptive, and so worked up were they that unbidden tears rolled down their cheeks.

Our space will not permit us to give a full description of the scenes or of Miss Tucker's descriptive and elocutionary powers. If she was not perfect, in her work, no one has yet pointed out her imperfections.

"Peter," the old time slave, as "Hiram And" the man who cussed his mother-in-law backwards and forwards, and up and down, cross-ways, side-ways and straight through, as "Mrs. Gonder," the mother-in-law, as the "Milk-maid," and as "Marm Susan," the old time negro mammy, her impersonations were fine and each one was so much enjoyed that every one finds it difficult to tell which was best.

It was a clean show, no one word was said that would offend the most sensitive.

Miss Tucker will return on next Saturday night when she will be greeted by a crowded house.

OBITUARY.

MISS CARIE LEE MAGRUDER, Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Magruder, yielded up her young life to her Savior's last "call," on March 6th, 1932, about 6 o'clock in the morning.
She died at home, where all of the family had gathered in anticipation of the event, in the house and on the place near Woodstock, Va., where she had spent many happy hours of her childhood and girlhood. She was about twenty-three years of age.

Carrie was baptized and dedicated to a Covenant God therein, July 6th, 1879.
She ratified this faithful act of her father and mother, by her own voluntary and public act of professing faith in and surrender to her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, and was received in to the full membership of the Presbyterian Church, on May 11th, 1900. Her short life on earth was ended, about 6 o'clock on the morning of March 6th, 1932, and she was laid away in the Lutheran Grave Yard, Woodstock, about half hour after twelve o'clock, Saturday, March 8th, 1932.

These are the dates, but who can fill them in?

A mother's heart of love can do somuch, and sweet will be the task in the coming years; and so, the father's heart, and sisters, brothers, friends, all can bring some fragrant great or small, to "fill in the dates," rebuild the life, as it were, with memory's contributions! But who shall "fill in the Inner Life"? Who shall make real once more, that inner world, which all of us carry about with us, and yet—so little known!

The Master Builder, alone, can do that! It was known, all the time to Him, in our dear Carrie's case, as it is in the case of us all! And feeling this, he gave her heart and life to Him, communed with Him in His Word and at the Mercy Seat, embraced with grateful trust His offers of pardon and sustaining grace through His atoning Son, and rested her soul on His sweet promises. When the last sickness came, her trust and resignation to His holy will, grew more and more. Prayer brought peace to her, and the sweet hymns her sister sang. Though her outward body decayed, it could not stop the renewing of the inward spirit day by day. Sweet will be that memory, stricken ones!

"Then will keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on Thee! Whose heart trusteth in Thee!"

Trust ye in the Lord Jehovah! For in the Lord Jehovah is Everlasting Strength." PASTOR.

The Manse, March 11, 1932.

Railroad Accident.

Train No. 14, last Tuesday morning ran into some freight cars that had been carelessly left on the track, at the coal bins near Manassas. Fireman Weston Atkinson was killed and Engineer Thomas Rowen severely injured. The only passenger badly hurt was Miss Waddill, of the Plains.

Mr. Hugh Fravel, Dr. S. J. Hoffman and Mrs. D. P. Magruder were on the train, but escaped without injury.

$100 REWARD $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has made it possible to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces, thus destroying the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Death of W. B. Lichliter.

Mr. W. B. Lichliter died at his home near Seven Fountains, on last Sunday evening 65 years. Another Confederate veteran has laid aside his arms, answered the last roll call, and now gently sleeps.

He was a worthy and highly esteemed citizen. For a number of years he was a merchant at Cross Roads, but the most of his life was spent in farming. His family have the sincere sympathy of a large number of friends.

Appointed by the Governor.

Governor Montague appointed Mr.
J. N. Davis, of this place, as delegate to represent Shenandoah county in the Good Roads Convention which meets in Richmond, March 20-21st.

weather has been compelled to stop baling hay, for a while.

Mr. Philip Lentz moved into his house at Harrisville, which was lately occupied by Mr. Jas. Miller. Mr. Lentz is an energetic man and will, we have no doubt, prove to be an excellent neighbor.

On last Tuesday, Mr. Jas. Miller and family moved from Harrisville to a new home some distance below Capon Road.

Our energetic mail carrier was not to be stopped by the severe snow storm.
When the roads were impassable, he took to the fields and carried the mail sack on his back from Harrisville to Mt.
Olive and the Brook and gave us one mail a day until the roads were open.

The recent snow storm was one of the most severe we have ever had. Our roads were completely closed by the drifts. By the aid of horses and shovels our farmers opened up and were able to get their eggs to market. X.
